By JUNE JONES

POOR SERVICE oftentimes means life and death, but the story below didn't seem to be specially bothering to the young man involved:

The new paratroopers were going up for their first jump. Before they boarded the plane, the sergeant briefed them on the procedure.
"All you gotta do is jump out of the door when you get the order. Start counting by ones the ring on your chest. That will tell you when to jump. Then pull open the chute. If it doesn't, there's an emergency ring down at your belt. Pull it. When you land, fold up your chute and wait until a truck comes to pick you up. Nothing to it."

As the last rookie bailed out and counted ten faster than anyone had ever counted it before, he pulled his chest ring. Nothing happened. Frantically he felt for the ring at his belt and pulled it. Still no billowing chute.
"Ain't that just like the Army!" he gulped. "I'll bet that truck won't be there, either!"

A ROTAN MAN declared that his wife had solved a problem that had plagued his household. Being a poetic creature he made it rhyme like this:

No salesman lingers at our door
With argument compelling;
My wife gets rid of him with ease
By buying what he's selling.

MODERN LIVING, or trying to learn how to live, is causing a lot of concern nowadays. Fachard Wheeler puts his musings about health this way:

With rules for healthful living rife,
I ought to be elated,
But here of late I'm finding life
A little complicated.
To heed each rule I hear,
And this I find entailing
So much concern that soon, I fear,
I'll set myself to ailing.

There seem to be a thousand things

I give my time and thought to
While making sure my body clings
To health the way it ought to.
And all this time and thought I give
I view with some misgiving;
I'm so engrossed with how to live
I've little time for living!

ANOTHER ASPECT about this matter of motoring safety is contained in the trite words of this little ditty:

On the roads, as in a baseball game it is the number of times you reach home safely that really counts!

WE CONTINUE to find a little extra knowledge other than that provided by Webster's famous book, in order to keep abreast of the times. For example, these modern day word explainers will bring us up-to-date:

MOTHER: Little girls, it is said, are made of sugar and spice and everything nice. By the time of the sugar and spice have worn off, they become mothers and all they have left is everything nice, but that lasts forever.

DAD: Good old dad and his hard-won pay check usually are given for granted, like the foundations of the house. Dad is the only one who gets told what the family is going to do, does most of the work, pays all the cost—and it wasn't his idea in the first place.

UNDERGRAD: One who is always ready to give you the benefit of his inexperience.

STAMFORD'S most eligible bachelor was telling his Hamlin friend:

"Frank, I hate to tell you, but last night at your party your sister promised to become my wife. Can you forgive me for leaving her away?"

"Shucks, that's what the party was for."

AN ASPERMONT farmer failed to get the results he expected from a remedy that he had purchased from the mail order house. He wrote them the "Please send me my money's worth letter."

"Dear Sirs: Please send me my money's worth letter. I have taken six of your corn syrup, my feet are not any better."

Addition of Two New Faculty Members Testifies to Growth

Building Trades Course Instructor Yet to Be Named

Continued growth of Hamlin and its school system are attested this week by the announcement that two members have been added to the faculty, making a total of 51 for the five schools of the district.

Faculty for the five schools of the Hamlin Consolidated Independent School District has been completed for the 1955-56 term except for a building trades instructor, according to Superintendent I. R. Huchingson.

Among new additions to the faculty are:

Mrs. Zelma Hulse, a teacher in the Crowell Schools for the past nine years, will serve as high school librarian and assist in the English department. Mrs. Hulse has a master's degree in library science from North Texas State College at Denton.

Mrs. Mae Hennington will teach second grade. Mrs. Hennington has been teaching in the McCaulley Schools for the past 16 years. She is a graduate of McMurry College at Abilene.

Doyle Smith, a graduate of Abilene Christian College, with a major in English and a minor in speech, will teach in the English department.

County Agent Declares Lady Beetles Not Too Effective in Control of Insects

Cotton farmers and others of the Hamlin area may have been concerned over reports of effectiveness of lady beetles in controlling cotton insects. The following article is submitted by County Agent Bill Lehmberg on the subject:

During the past few weeks we have had several inquiries about the effectiveness of lady beetles in controlling injurious cotton insects. Certainly, we must not overlook the value of lady beetles, other predators and parasites that feed on destructive insects. However, we should not place too much emphasis on their importance in the control program.

Lady beetles are general feeders on aphids, spider mites and may also destroy a small percentage of the eggs and very small larvae of the bollworm. The primary food supply of lady beetles is aphids; therefore, when aphids are present, the beetles are not likely to feed on other insects.

Before any beneficial insects increase in cotton or any other crop, there must first be an adequate food supply available. Perhaps one of the most important factors that influence the lack or abundance of beneficial insects is the weather. Weather conditions may favor the increase of harmful insects but may suppress or completely stop build-up of beneficial insects.

James Glasscock To Lead Methodist Youth Revival

Rev. James Glasscock, 20-year-old evangelist, will be the speaker for the Methodist youth revival which begins Sunday evening at the First Methodist Church, leaders in the church announced this week.

Young Glasscock is a junior ministerial student at McMurry College in Abilene. He began preaching in March, 1953, and was licensed to preach the following August. Prior to entering the ministry, Rev. Glasscock was a lay speaker in his local church at Wellington and surrounding churches. During the past two years he has preached extensively around Wellington and the Abilene area. While in McMurry he has been on a number of deputations to churches in the Northwest Texas and New Mexico conferences. During this summer he has held youth revivals in a number of churches, including Kermit, Throckmorton and Floydada. He comes to Hamlin from Abilene.

Midwest Co-Op Renames Directors At Annual Session

Members of the board of directors of the Midwest Electric Co-operative were renamed at the fifteenth annual membership meeting held under a "big top" at the fair grounds at Roby last Friday. Among attendants were scores from the Hamlin area.

Directors are John Stavely of Fluvanna, Ted McArthur of Rotan, Ted Merchant of Sweetwater, A. B. Aaron of Rotan, Grady Williams and J. J. Henry of Hermleigh and Vernon Harris of Hamlin.

The business meeting was held at 2:00 p. m. with Howard Davison of Lubbock, co-op attorney, presiding. Annual reports were given by officers of the board and by the co-op manager, Johnnie Ammons of Roby.

Davison told the group that the $2,500,000 corporation is owned by 2,986 members in Fisher, Scurry, Jones, Mitchell, Stonewall, Nolan and Borden Counties.

Approximately 2,500 people from the co-op area crowded the "big top" listening to professional entertainment at 10:30 a. m. and during the afternoon session. A non-competitive amateur hour featuring area talent was presented at 3:00 p. m., directed by Mrs. Jim O'Brian of Rotan and J. T. Plamer and Jerry Robertson, both of the co-op office.

Former board members, some of whom were founders of the co-op, were given special recognition. They included John Brown of Nelinda.

Foster Resigns After 13 Years in Officer Position

In a called session of the City Council Thursday morning, E. B. (Buddy) Watson was named police chief of Hamlin. He will take office Monday, August 15.

Simultaneously, the resignation of J. H. Foster, who has been chief of police for 13 years, was accepted. His resignation, likewise, will become effective on August 15.

Watson, who was an employee of the police department in 1945 and 1946, has been a resident of Hamlin for many years. He was night patrolman most of that period and assisted other officers of the city and county on special occasions. For several years he has been employed by the E. C. Feagan Oil Transport Company of Hamlin.

Simultaneously with the hiring of the new police chief, Mayor Willard Jones announced that several new policies would become effective with the police department. Principal change will be discontinuation of the fee plan that has existed for years in the city. Under this plan the arresting officer was paid a $4 fee on each arrest. Hereafter, the police members will be paid flat salaries.

With the recent installation of a patrol car, much of the costs of the officers' car operations have been cancelled. However, where use of the officers' cars is necessary, the costs will still be paid.

In accepting the resignation of Foster, members of the council expressed appreciation of the long tenure of the officer, Mayor Jones said. He also made it plain that, despite rumors that have been heard the last several days, there had been no "break" between Foster and members of the council.

W. C. Eoff Appointed To Board of Trustees

W. C. Eoff, farmer living south-east of Hamlin, was appointed as a member of the board of trustees of the Hamlin Independent Consolidated School District, when members of the board met Tuesday evening in regular session.

He will fill the unexpired term of Onis Crawford, who moved to Merkel recently to become manager of the Merkel Chamber of Commerce. The appointive term of Eoff will expire in April, 1956.

Who's New This Week

Mr. and Mrs. Byron C. Compton of Fort Worth are announcing the arrival of a son on July 31. He weighed nine pounds seven ounces. Mrs. Compton is the former Shirley Ruth Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Moore of Hamlin.

Four new arrivals are reported at Hamlin Memorial Hospital since last week's report in The Herald. Four girls (two of them are twins) and a boy, they are:

A girl for Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Penrod of Abilene arrived July 26 at 10:23 p. m. Weighing seven pounds 12 ounces, he has been labeled Joseph Daniel.

A girl for Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Harris of Aspermont was born July 27 at 1:15 a. m. The little miss tipped the scales at eight pounds six ounces, then accepted the name Rhonda Beth.

Two girls for Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Stanford arrived July 28. Carla Fay was born at 8:05 p. m., weighing six pounds five and one-half ounces. Carolyn Kay was born at 8:08 a. m., weighing seven pounds one ounce.

A girl arrived for Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Yarbrough of Aspermont July 31 at 10:10 p. m. She will answer to Nicki Jan. She balanced the beam at seven pounds and three ounces.

Two Wildcats Spot Oil Activity in Area

Two new wildcats and one well being prepared for testing highlighted the oil news of the past several days in the Hamlin section.

Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company's No. 5 Louella Patterson was spotted five miles west of Hamlin in the Round Top (Palo Pinto) Field. Having a proposed depth of 5,000 feet with rotary equipment, it spots 330 feet from the north and 1,271 feet from the east lines of Section 213, Block 1, B. B. B. & C. Railway Company Survey.

The Texas Company's No. 2 Lillian C. Droke was spotted 10 miles northeast of Hamlin in the Droke (Canyon Lime) Field. Site is 2,090 feet from the south and 1,060 feet from the west lines of Section 117, Block 1, H. & T. C. Railway Company Survey. Permit calls for 6,000 feet with rotary equipment. Location is one-fourth mile west of Texas Company's No. 1 Droke, the field opener. The field presently has two wells.

General Crude Oil Company's No. 3 Pierce Holland, wildcat eight miles northwest of Hamlin, was bottomed at 5,850 feet. Operator was preparing to take a drillstem test at 5,836-50 feet. Site is in Section 103, Block 1, H. & T. C. Railway Company Survey.

The bill passed by the Legislature provided for the additional $7,000,000 in assistance to begin in September. But because the bill was passed by a voice vote, it ran into a constitutional snag providing that such bills cannot go into effect until 90 days after the session ends, which would be September 6.

The delay in the effective date raised a question as to whether the additional funds could be made available before October 1.

Sheppard ruled that the increased allocations for September could be made September 6. This permits payment of the increase for that month.

This opinion was requested by the State Department of Public Welfare.

Three Hamlin Coaches Attend Annual School

Coaches Truman Nix, Jim Herdridge and Harrell Blackburn of the Hamlin High School athletic staff are in San Antonio this week attending the annual Texas Coaching Association school. In attendance are about 1,500 Texas coaches.

SPEAKER for the youth revival beginning Sunday evening at the First Methodist Church will be Rev. James Glasscock (above), 20-year-old ministerial student at McMurry College in Abilene. A spirited young evangelist, he has been preaching for three years near his home town of Wellington.

insects. When adequate food supplies and favorable weather conditions exist, predators and parasites will increase rapidly. Rapid increases of harmful insects will often severely damage the crop before the beneficial insects can build up and be added in sufficient numbers to control the injurious insects.

Research data and observations by trained entomologists shows that lady beetles disperse rapidly when released in a field and that after a few days the beetles may not be any more numerous in the fields where released than in other surrounding fields.

Other predators such as flower bugs, lace-winged flies, spiders and wasps are much more effective in suppressing many injurious insects, especially bollworms, than are lady beetles.

Beneficial insects are helpful in preventing increases of some pests, but remember the lady beetle is primarily an aphid feeder and one of the least effective for bollworm control. No substitute has been found for making frequent and regular checks for destructive insect infestations and using recommended insecticides when the damaging pests build up faster than beneficial insects can control them. Growers should never rely entirely on beneficial insects to control destructive pests of cotton.

Release of lady beetles is not recommended for bollworm control or any other injurious pest of field crops.

State Capitol NEWS

By Verne Sanford, Manager,
Texas Press Association.

Austin.—First conviction in the 59 indictments shrouding the veterans' land program came last week.

A three-year penitentiary sentence was fixed by a 98th District Court jury for the program's founding father, Bascom Giles.

Surprised, Giles promised to use all his legal rights to fight the conviction. Motion for new trial was quickly overruled, clearing the way for appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Conviction was on a charge the former land commissioner aided and abetted Brady land dealer R. B. Sheffield in the theft of $6,800. Sheffield was jointly indicted with Giles and still awaits trial.

Involved was the state's purchase last fall of the 10,114-acre

Kinney County Rosenow Ranch, subdivided into 54 tracts for resale to 54 veterans. One tract sold for $6,800 to a veteran who testified he thought he was signing up for a $100 loan.

Giles stoutly denied the state charges that he over-appraised the land as part of a scheme to defraud the state. He said he knew nothing of $100-per-acre purchases of veterans' signatures to put through the transaction.

Many a courtroom spectator had predicted an acquittal prior to the closing argument of young District Attorney Les Procter.

He waved in the faces of the jury a $25,000 check from Sheffield to Giles and called it "corroboration" of state testimony as to a pay-off. Giles had testified it was in payment for a real estate sale in which he acted as agent.

Free on a $20,000 appeal bond, Giles awaits trial again August 15 in San Antonio. He is charged there with accepting a bribe in another land program deal. Other indictments are still pending in Travis and Zavala Counties.

In the second of many civil suits resulting from the veterans' land scandals the state last week recovered $89,868.

Byrd Cattle Company of Dallas was ordered by 53rd District Court to repay that amount plus three per cent interest.

TURNCOATS AT PRESS CONFERENCE—Three former American GIs, William A. Cowart of Dalton, Georgia, Lewis W. Griggs of Jacksonville, Texas, and Otho G. Bell of Olympia, Washington (left to right) who elected to stay in Red China following the Korean war and after nearly two years following their renouncing of American citizenship, crossed the border between Red China and Hong Kong. They were met by British Red Cross representatives and British officials who told them they were admitted to Hong Kong at "prohibited immigrants."

Action was initiated by the cattle company. It offered to buy back at the purchase price the 700 acres of Dimmit County land sold to 15 veterans. Court judgment was necessary, however, to rescind the transaction.

No allegation of fraud was made by the attorney general's department against the company. It did, however, accuse J. Paul Little, Crystal City attorney who promoted the transaction, with making false representation to the Veterans Land Board.

Way was cleared last week for a new Texas Democratic national committeeman.

In the change, Governor Allan Shivers hopes to regain the vote Texas has lost on the national committee. Wright Morrow has not been nationally recognized since he renounced the Democratic presidential nominee to support Eisenhower three years ago.

To set the stage, the state Democratic committee last week declared the national committeeman post vacant after stirring speeches.

Morrow bitterly assailed Shivers, who for several months had urged the committeeman to resign. Shivers, Morrow charged, wanted to replace him with "someone acceptable to Speaker Sam Rayburn . . . and somebody who supported the Democratic ticket in 1952. He challenged any member of the committee to say he could so qualify.

Shivers denied intention to appease Rayburn. He declared Texas conservative Democrats need full representation on the national committee to help get their delegation seated at the 1956 presidential convention.

A successor to Morrow is to be named at a September meeting. Liberal Democrats quickly tried to wedge the conservative breach.

Ralph W. Yarborough of Austin, twice defeated by Shivers for the governorship, extended his sympathy to Morrow. Even though the two have long disagreed politically, Yarborough said he regretted to see any man "double-crossed."

James Sewell of Corsicana, chairman of the Democratic advisory committee, spoke up for Morrow as a "victim of political connivers."

A state-wide advisory committee on public school integration problems is meeting here this week.

Governor Shivers invited 33 men and women, both white and colored, to serve on the committee. Additional legislative members were named by Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey and Speaker Jim Lindsey.

Shivers said the committee was needed to study critical desegregation problems and prevent "hasty, ill advised action."

He urged school districts to appoint similar committees. They would study local level problems and serve as liaison with the state group.

A non-profit corporation pledged to fight crime on a state-wide basis will set up headquarters in Austin.

Called the Texas Law Enforcement Foundation, it grew out of recommendations of the attorney general's citizen's advisory committee on law enforcement. Its aim is to provide a broad program of education in scientific crime fighting techniques.

It will provide libraries on criminology, make awards to outstanding officers, publish bulletins on new crime combating tactics, assist training schools, sponsor additional schools.

Texas traffic deaths the first six months of 1955 are up two per cent, and June totals are still incomplete.

"Hot Flashes Stopped" or strikingly relieved

in 83-80% of cases in doctors' tests
If you're miserable from the "hot flashes," and accompanying irritable, restless feelings of "change of life"—you may be suffering unnecessarily!

For . . . in tests by doctors . . . Lydia Pinkham's Compound and Tablets brought relief from such functionally-caused suffering to 83% and 80% (respectively) of the women tested! Complete or striking relief!

Yes! Research has proved these medicines thoroughly modern in action . . . has shown you where to look for relief from those distressing, nervous, "out of sorts" feelings of mid-life "change!"

So . . . get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—or new, improved Tablets with added iron! (Wonderful, too, for the functional pains of menstrual periods)

It acts through a woman's sympathetic nervous system to relieve distress of those awful "heat waves!"

Santa Fe Carloadings For Week Over 1954

Santa Fe Railway System carloadings for the week ending July 23, 1955, were 25,163 compared with 23,270 for the same week in 1954. Cars received from connections totaled 11,386 compared with 10,874 for the same week in 1954.

Total cars moved were 36,549 compared with 34,144 for the same week in 1954. Santa Fe handled a total of 39,162 cars in the preceding week of this year.

Mrs. Harley Sadler Takes Life After Illness at Austin

Rites for Mrs. Harley Sadler, widow of the late senator from this 24th District, were held at 3:00 p. m. Sunday in the Green Funeral Home in Cameron. A Baptist minister of Rockdale officiated. Burial was in the Oak Hill Cemetery at Cameron.

Mrs. Sadler was found shot to death in her apartment in Austin Friday morning. Her body was discovered a few minutes after she had been drinking coffee with her brother, Seth Burnett Massengale. Justice of the Peace J. H. Watson returned a verdict of death due to self-inflicted gunshot wound.

Massengale told investigators that he and Mrs. Sadler had been drinking coffee when she said she wanted to take a nap and left the room. He heard a shot a few minutes later, he said.

She was stricken with cancer and underwent extensive surgery and treatment soon after her husband's death in 1954.

Mrs. Sadler married Harley Sadler and started a show career as a bride selling tickets and playing the piano for the show with which Sadler was traveling at the time.

The Sadlers were well known to many Hamlin area people, in which area they traveled with shows. Sadler had oil operations in the section during his latter lifetime.

Several Conversions in Revival Held at Bethel

Houston Walker, pastor of the First Baptist Church, conducted revival services at the Bethel Baptist Church in the Funston community. The meeting closed Sunday evening.

Rev. Walker reports a good meeting, with good crowds in attendance and splendid interest. There were several conversions during the meeting.

It's important to know where we stand, but more important to know where we're going.

HOT SUMMER WEATHER

Hot summer weather means longer and longer working hours for me . . . and added jobs. For when the temperature soars there's much, much more work for me to do in addition to my regular chores . . . work that I'm glad to do so long as it's helping you.

My hours and wages, as shown on your electric service bill, may be larger during this hot weather, but I believe you'll agree that a few extra pennies a day for the extra hours I've worked is a real bargain in more comfortable summer living.

Dr. Brown's research interests have centered around studies of the relationship of human biological variability to the etiology of metabolic diseases. The particular work reported in his dissertation was concerned with metabolic peculiarities in normal young men as quantitatively reflected in organic blood constituents. Certain results of previous related studies of his have been published in scientific journals.

After graduating as valedictorian of the class of Hamlin High School in 1945, Dr. Brown attended Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene for two years. Mental Illnesses Being Neglected, Nail Advises Lions

"Over 50 per cent of all visits to all types of doctors are by people who are ill because of emotional mental illnesses," declared Wesley Nail, business manager of Hamlin Memorial Hospital, when he spoke on "Mental Health" at the Tuesday noon luncheon meeting of Hamlin Lions Club at the oil mill guest house.

Nail noted that America has organized groups to study, treat and educate on tuberculosis, muscular dystrophy, polio, heart and cancer troubles, but little attention has been given to mental health.

"Mental health now is our No. 1 problem," he said, pointing to the fact that 1,000,000 beds are filled with mental patients; while another 5,000,000 are affected by mental illnesses, many of which could be saved with treatment. Fifty per cent of all unfinished discharges from the service are because of mental illness."

Nail urged that more attention be given to research, training personnel and treatment of mental illnesses.

Besides Nail another guest at the Tuesday luncheon was J. H. Millard of Abilene.

Scouters to Attend Training School at Stamford Church

Hamlin Boy Scout and Cub Scouts are expected to attend a district Scouter training program next Thursday evening at 7:15 o'clock at the Stamford Presbyterian Church, according to Ray Davis, district executive.

All Cub Scouts and Boy Scouters in Shackelford, Haskell and Jones Counties are invited to attend. Scoutmasters are asked to bring their senior patrol leaders and junior assistant Scoutmasters.

All den mothers and leaders will be issued their fall program quarterlies and leaders new program notebook. The new annual program charts will be explained, and each unit will be helped as they so desire in planning their year's program. Davis advised. It is important to some 700 boys' experience in Scouting that the 30 units in the Northern District of the Chisholm Trail Council each have representatives at this Scouters' training meeting, the executive points out.

Program planning films will be shown and discussed in relation to each Cub pack and Scout troop. Also the annual round-up program will be initiated.

Retired Workers In County Receive $14,043 Per Month

In Jones County at the end of last year 299 retired workers were receiving $14,043 in monthly social security payments according to R. R. Tuley Jr., district manager of the social security office in Abilene.

In addition to the retired workers themselves, 320 people were receiving $9,550 a month as dependents of the retired workers or as survivors of deceased workers.

Although this is a considerable increase as compared with payments a year ago, it is certain that more people will receive larger payments in years to come because of changes in the social security law in 1954, Tuley says. Among the major changes were the following:

1. Computation of payments after "dropping out" up to five years of lowest social security covered earnings;
2. Extension of social security coverage to more farm workers and to self-employed farmers, as well as many other kinds of work;
3. Increasing of the maximum wages creditable toward benefits from $3,600 to $4,200;
4. Allowing disabled workers to "freeze" their social security wage records while disabled;
5. Increasing the amount of earnings which a retired worker can receive and still get all or a part of his retirement payments. (There is no restriction on earnings after a worker is 72 years old).

Persons with social security questions are invited to contact the Abilene office for information. The address is 766 Cedar Street, and the mailing address is P. O. Box 1641, Abilene, Texas.

One-Step Method of Vegetable Canning Presented by Agent

Jimmie Lou Waincott, county home demonstration agent, points out that the summer months are times when much canning is done, and many have been asking in the county extension agent's office about our latest methods of canning.

In the one-step cold pack method for canning vegetables recently sent out by the extension foods and nutrition specialists of Texas A. & M. College system, we have the following method for canning beans:

BEAN, SNAP
Wash beans. Trim ends, cut into one-inch pieces. Pack raw beans tightly to one-half inch of top of container. Cover with boiling water, leaving one-half inch space at top of jar. Add one-half teaspoon salt to pint jars, one tablespoon to quarts. Adjust jar lids. Process in pressure canner at 10 pounds pressure (240 degrees)—pint jars 20 minutes, and quart jars 25 minutes.

As soon as you remove jars from canner, complete seals if closures are not of self sealing type.

Methods for canning all other vegetables and fruits may be obtained in the county extension agent's office.

POOR SERVICE oftentimes means life and death, but the story below didn't seem to be specially bothering to the young man involved:

The new paratroopers were going up for their first jump. Before they boarded the plane, the sergeant briefed them on the procedure.

"All you gotta do is jump out of the door when you get the order. Start counting by ones the ring on your chest. That will tell you when to pull it. Then pull open the chute. If it doesn't, there's an emergency ring down at your belt. Pull it. When you land, fold up your chute and wait until a truck comes to pick you up. Nothing to it."

As the last rookie bailed out and counted ten faster than anyone had ever counted it before, he pulled his chest ring. Nothing happened. Practically he felt for the ring at his belt and pulled it. Still no billowing chute.

"Ain't that just like the Army!" he gulped. "I'll bet that truck won't be there, either!"

A ROTAN MAN declared that his wife had solved a problem that had plagued his household. Being a poetic creature he made it rhyme like this:

No salesman lingers at our door
With argument compelling;
My wife gets rid of him with ease
By buying what he's selling.

MODERN LIVING, or trying to learn how to live, is causing a lot of concern nowadays. Richard Wheeler puts his musings about health this way:

With rules for healthful living life, I ought to be elated,
But here of late I'm finding life
A little complicated.
I try to heed each rule I hear,
And this I find entailing
So much concern that soon, I fear,
I'll set myself to ailing.

There seem to be a thousand things
I give my time and thought to
While making sure my body clings
To health the way it ought to.
And all this time and thought I give
I view with some misgiving;
I'm so engrossed with how to live
I've little time for living!

ANOTHER ASPECT about this matter of motoring safety is contained in the trite words of this little ditty:

On the roads, as in a baseball game it is the number of times you reach home safely that really counts:

WE CONTINUE to find a little extra knowledge other than that provided by Webster's famous book, in order to keep abreast of the times. For example, these modern day word explainers will bring us up-to-date:

MOTHER: Little girls, it is said, are made of sugar and spice and everything nice. By the time all the sugar and spice have worn off, they become mothers and all the yhave left is everything nice, but that lasts forever.

DAD: Good old dad and his hard-won pay check usually are taken for granted, like the foundations of the house. Dad is the only one who gets told what the family is going to do, does most of the work, pays all the cost—and it wasn't his idea in the first place.

UNDERGRAD: One who is always ready to give you the benefit of his inexperience.

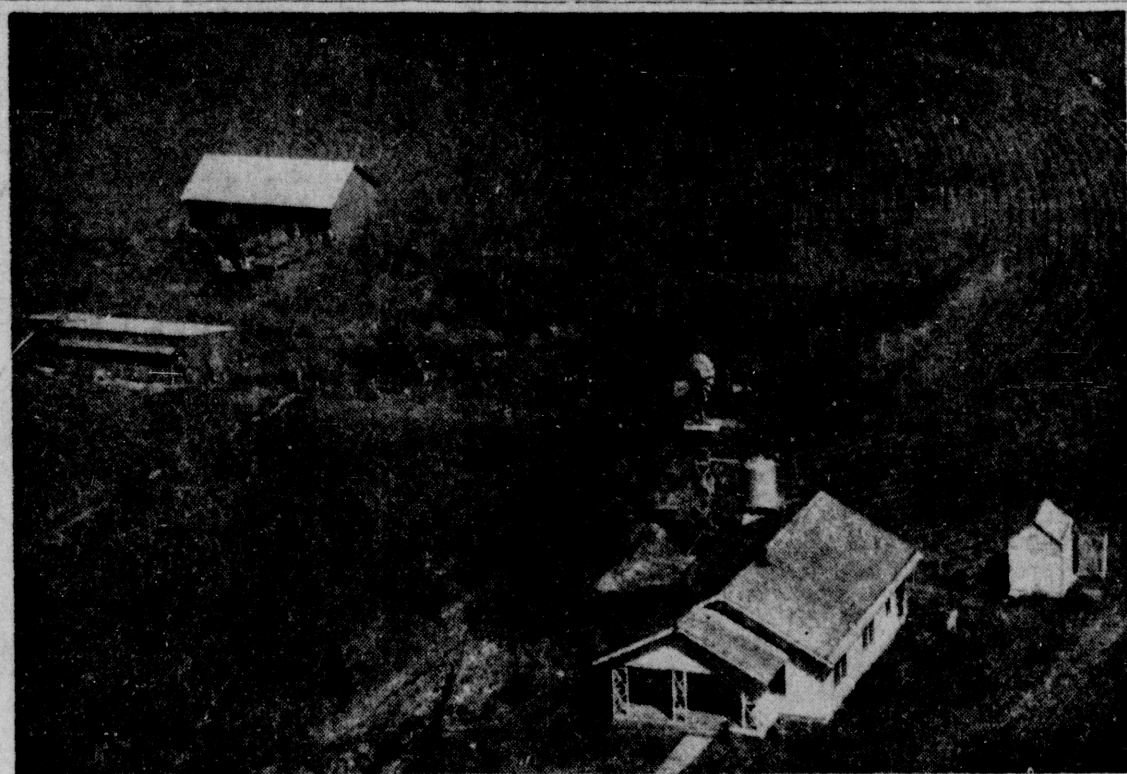

STAMFORD'S most eligible bachelor was telling his Hamlin friend:

"Frank, I hate to tell you, but last night at your party your sister promised to become my wife. Can you forgive me for taking her away?"

"Shucks, that's what the party was for."

AN ASPERMONT farmer failed to get the results he expected from a remedy that he had purchased from the mail order house. He wrote them the following letter:

"Dear Sirs: Please send me my money back, as after taking six of your corn syrup, my feet are any better."

Addition of Two New Faculty Members Testifies to Growth

Building Trades Course Instructor Yet to Be Named

Continued growth of Hamlin and its school system are attested this week by the announcement that two members have been added to the faculty, making a total of 51 for the five schools of the district.

Faculty for the five schools of the Hamlin Consolidated Independent School District has been completed for the 1955-56 term except for a building trades instructor, according to Superintendent I. R. Huchingson.

Among new additions to the faculty are:

Mrs. Zelma Hulse, a teacher in the Crowell Schools for the past nine years, will serve as high school librarian and assist in the English department. Mrs. Hulse has a master's degree in library science from North Texas State College at Denton.

Mrs. Mae Hennington will teach second grade. Mrs. Hennington has been teaching in the McCaulley Schools for the past 16 years. She is a graduate of McMurry College at Abilene.

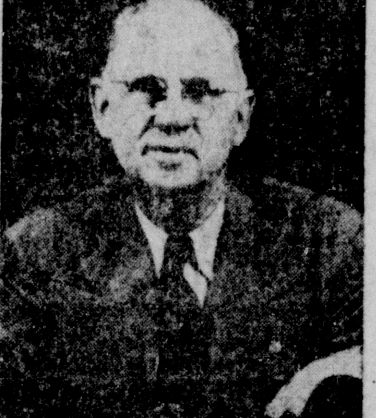

Doyle Smith, a graduate of Abilene Christian College, with a major in English and a minor in speech, will teach in the English department.

County Agent Declares Lady Beetles Not Too Effective in Control of Insects

Cotton farmers and others of the Hamlin area may have been concerned over reports of effective use of lady beetles in controlling cotton insects. The following article is submitted by County Agent Bill Lehmborg on the subject:

During the past few weeks we have had several inquiries about the effectiveness of lady beetles in controlling injurious cotton insects. Certainly, we must not overlook the value of lady beetles, other predators and parasites that feed on destructive insects. However, we should not place too much emphasis on their importance in the control program.

Foster Resigns After 13 Years in Officer Position

In a called session of the City Council Thursday morning, E. B. (Buddy) Watson was named police chief of Hamlin. He will take office Monday, August 15.

Simultaneously, the resignation of J. H. Foster, who has been chief of police for 13 years, was accepted. His resignation, likewise, will become effective on August 15.

Watson, who was an employee of the police department in 1945 and 1946, has been a resident of Hamlin for many years. He was night patrolman most of that period and assisted other officers of the city and county on special occasions. For several years he has been employed by the E. C. Feagan Oil Transport Company of Hamlin.

Simultaneously with the hiring of the new police chief, Mayor Willard Jones announced that several new policies would become effective with the police department. Principal change will be discontinuation of the fee plan that has existed for years in the city. Under this plan the arresting officer was paid a $4 fee on each arrest. Hereafter, the police members will be paid flat salaries.

With the recent installation of a patrol car, much of the costs of the officers' car operations have been cancelled. However, where use of the officers' cars is necessary, the costs will still be paid.

In accepting the resignation of Foster, members of the council expressed appreciation of the long tenure of the officer, Mayor Jones said. He also made it plain that, despite rumors that have been heard the last several days, there had been no "break" between Foster and members of the council.

W. C. Eoff Appointed To Board of Trustees

W. C. Eoff, farmer living south-east of Hamlin, was appointed as a member of the board of trustees of the Hamlin Independent Consolidated School District, when members of the board met Tuesday evening in regular session. Two Wildcats Spot Oil Activity in Area

Two new wildcats and one well being prepared for testing highlighted the oil news of the past several days in the Hamlin section.

Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company's No. 5 Louella Patterson was spotted five miles west of Hamlin in the Round Top (Palo Pinto) Field. Having a proposed depth of 5,000 feet with rotary equipment, it spots 330 feet from the north and 1,271 feet from the east lines of Section 213, Block 1, B. B. B. & C. Railway Company Survey.

Additional Old Age Pension Payments To Be Made Soon

Old people of the Hamlin area and the rest of Texas heaved a sigh of relief Thursday as Attorney General John Ben Shepperd ruled that they will begin receiving increased old age assistance benefits in September.

The bill passed by the Legislature provided for the additional $7,000,000 in assistance to begin in September. But because the bill was passed by a voice vote, it ran into a constitutional snag providing that such bills cannot go into effect until 90 days after the session ends, which would be September 6.

The delay in the effective date raised a question as to whether the additional funds could be made available before October 1.

Shepperd ruled that the increased allocations for September could be made September 6. This permits payment of the increase for that month.

This opinion was requested by the State Department of Public Welfare.

Three Hamlin Coaches Attend Annual School

Coaches Truman Nix, Jim Herdridge and Harrell Blackburn of the Hamlin High School athletic staff are in San Antonio this week attending the annual Texas Coaching Association school. In attendance are about 1,500 Texas coaches.

The school will close Friday evening with the annual North-South exhibition football game. The two teams are composed of the senior all-stars of the past season of Texas football.

SPEAKER for the youth revival beginning Sunday evening at the First Methodist Church will be Rev. James Glasscock (above), 20-year-old ministerial student at McMurry College in Abilene. A spirited young evangelist, he has been preaching for three years near his home town of Wellington.

GETTING MORE PRODUCTION FROM LESS ACRES

More and more the wheat and cotton farmers of this section of the country are being limited to fewer acreage as part of the price support programs, but those with initiative and acumen are determined not to be downed with such limitations. They are turning to other cash and soil building crops.

But a sure way for the wheat and cotton farmer to maintain his income from these well adapted crops is to up the production of them on the limited acres. As one farmer remarked in a famous declaration some several months ago, "I know a lot better ways to farm than I practice," it is nothing but good business to put into performance those methods which one knows to be an improvement over former ways.

Some of the improved methods to increase production are terracing, contouring, soil enrichment by plowing under legumes, planting improved seed that are proven adaptable to the area, fertilizing, irrigation, improved cultivation, better harvesting and marketing. Restrictions on acreages, be it remembered, do not restrict greater production on the controlled acreages.

The farmer who raises more and better wheat and cotton on fewer acre is the one who will continue to show a profit in his farm operations. This fact can be proven over and over in industrial short-cuts with improved methods and equipment. The industrious farmer can control his production much of the time with shrewd methods and practices.

Where the average farmer 20 years ago had only the weather and modern tractors for competition, he now has improved strains of grain and fiber, mass farming methods, artificial irrigation and a score of other things along with acreage controls. So, in order to survive, he, too, must employ farming practices that will utilize short-cuts, increase his production and otherwise compete with his competitors, just as the modern merchant must utilize everything in the book to meet his stiff competition in today's business world.

New crops inevitably must be adapted to the Hamlin area, even though in the past cotton, wheat and maize have been standbys for most of our farmers. The alert farm worker will keep his eyes and ears open to new ideas, new crops and new methods.

Films of Canadian Canoe Trip Shown At Rotary Session

Members and guests of the Hamlin Rotary Club got a first-hand view of the recent Canadian canoe trip taken by four Hamlin senior Boy Scouts and their advisor when films of the jaunt were shown at the Wednesday noon luncheon at the oil mill guest house.

The colored movie pictures, taken by City Coordinator Roy L. Dunlap, leader of the local Explorer post, who made the grueling trip last month, gave vivid scenes of the virgin forests and streams of Northern United States and Southern Canada into which 50 boys and men of the Abilene area went.

Hamlin boys making the trip were Don Adair, Red Fowler, Joe Stevens and Dee Previtt.

Beautiful lakes and stream and some fish caught by the group, were highlights of the films. The tour covered 100 miles of virgin territory and required eight days to make it.

R. L. McClung, manager of the Mid-West Cooperative Oil Mill, was presented as a new member of Hamlin Rotary Club by Tate May.

Guests at the Wednesday luncheon included W. M. Blackburn

Prices of Livestock Today Generally Are Better Than Year Ago, Says Ted Gouldy

Severely people recently have inquired of us as to how prices, as we turn into the month of August compare with a year ago, declares Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly release, which continues: Going back to our week's Livestock Reporter files we find that most cattle enjoy considerable advantage over a year ago.

The market at Fort Worth Monday on most cattle and calves was around steady despite the offering here being 1,500 above a year ago, and the run around the 12 major markets being about 30,000 cattle and calves above the previous Monday.

We can credit improved pasture and feed conditions for the strength of the market at Fort Worth at this time in the opinion of observers here.

A year ago at Fort Worth choice grain-fed cattle were quoted at $20 to $22, few to $23; common, plain and medium kinds, $10 to $18. Recent sales of choice cattle at $21 to $23.50, and common, plain and medium sorts in 1954 bulls brought $8 to $11; while in 1955 the market is $11 to $14.

In 1954 good and choice slaughter calves netted $17 to $19; common and medium, $9 to $15; culls $7 to $9. In 1955 prices at Good and choice slaughter calves, $16.50 to $19; common and medium, $12 to $15.50; culls, $9 to $11.

In 1954 stocker steer calves, medium to choice brought $15 to $19; steer yearlings, $18.50 down; heifer calves and yearlings, $15 down; stocker cows, $8.50 to $10. Prices in 1955 are: Medium, good and choice stocker steer calves $16 to $21; steer yearlings, $19.50 down; heifers, $16 down; and stocker cows, $8 to $12.

from $11 to $18, show a little better price for top cattle than a year ago.

Other classes: 1954—Fat cows, $9 to $12; canners at cutters, $8 to $9, a few under $6; 1955—fat cows $10.50 to $13; canners and cutters, $7 to 10.50.

Top hogs Monday sold at $17 to $17.25 at Fort Worth, and cows were also steady with last week's low close of $8 to $15. In-between grade butchers sold from $15.50 to $17, and some pigs sold around $14.

This date a year ago top hogs drew $23, and sows sold from $17 to $19.

Slaughter spring lambs were 50 cents to $1 lower at Fort Worth Monday, and other classes of sheep and lambs ruled about steady. Top lambs scored $19 and feeders sold at $15.50 downward. Comparison of the various classes with 1954 shows:

In 1954 good and choice slaughter lambs brought $16.50 to $18.50; common and medium killers, $10 to $15.50; culls down to $8; feeder lambs, $10 to $15; slaughter yearlings, $8 to $12; aged wethers, $6 to $9; slaughter ewes, $3 to $4.50; old bucks, $3; breeding ewes, $5 to $10.

In 1955: Good and choice spring lambs, $17.50 to $19; common and medium, $12 to $16.50; culls, $10 to $12; feeder lambs, $13 to $15.50; slaughter yearlings, $9 to $15; aged wethers, $7 to $12; slaughter ewes, $4 to $4; old bucks, $3 to $4; and stocker ewes, $7 to $12.

In response to requests from feeder buyers, both the Texas Aberdeen-Angus Association and the Texas Hereford Association have changed rules for their shows and sales this fall. At the Angus show to be held on the Fort Worth market September 9, and at the Hereford shows and sales slated for September 16 and October 21, the judging will be on lots of 10, lots of 20 head and carload lots of 50 head. Weight differentials will be dropped. This allows three classes of steers and three classes of heifers. Corn Belt buyers asked for the carload division.

Down Payment to Be Required by Veterans

Veterans of the Hamlin area are advised that those purchasing homes with the aid of GI loans will be required to make a down payment of at least two per cent, and the maximum time for repayment of loans will be set at 20 years. This announcement was made this week by Robert W. Sisson, manager of the VA regional office at Lubbock.

Similarly moderate credit requirements are being placed in effect by the Federal Housing Administration for homes purchased with FHA insured mortgages.

Since April 23, 1953, the VA has had no mandatory down payment requirement, and the mortgage repayment period could run as high as 30 years.

Let the Beer Boys Clean Up

Recent trips across the state by the editor of The Herald have added tender to the fire of disgust that has been welling up inside him and others to whom he has talked over the increasing nuisance of empty beer cans that are being strewn along Texas highways.

On one stretch of highway in this area, between Breckenridge and Albany, beer cans by the thousands literally "decorate" an otherwise beautiful thoroughfare over rolling hills and valleys. It is a disgrace that a so-called civilized people will use the public highways for their dumpgrounds.

If our neighbors or others dumped their cans into our yards here at home, we would rise up and have something done about the practice. The fact that our public highways belong to all of us should be all the more reason that we protest to our legislative officials to do something about it.

Texas Highway Department recently released figures showing that an estimated $235,000 was spent in 1953 in cleaning up beer cans from the highways. It is unfair to tax the majority of non-drinkers to pay for cleaning up such a mess.

This country editor's suggestion is that the highway department workers go ahead and clean up the cans—then send the bill to breweries. If the cost needs to be pro rated, that could be arranged by checking the names of the breweries from the cans picked up. Some legislation regulating this nuisance in this manner could no doubt be passed by our legislators and senators at Austin.

Editorial of the Week

UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING

The Advertiser has opposed universal military training on principle.

We are very glad to see that the Southern District Convention has voted unanimously against UMAT, because, for one thing, it would weaken the principle of freedom of thought.

It is a sad thing to see the steadily falling into the hands of the political or military, the minds of the citizens away from the truth.

The "real" concentration of the mind, and to promote military training, is a pattern of living is being set for the world, and the citizens are steadily falling into the hands of the political or military, the minds of the citizens away from the truth.

Persons or might mean slavery, even slavery of the mind. The mind is the most valuable asset of the citizen. The mind is the most valuable asset of the citizen.

You've Got to Have It

A fairly successful Kentucky farmer received a letter from his younger brother who lived in the big city, explaining in glowing terms what he believed to be a golden opportunity to make a very profitable financial investment. However, in order to make the investment, he needed $5,000 immediately; so, the main object of his letter was to persuade his frugal brother to loan him the $5,000.

The Kentucky farmer replied: "Dear Bud: Your letter has been received asking for a loan of $5,000. It is true that you and I have always been closer to each other than average brothers, and I have a deep affection and love for you, but I can't loan you the money. There is nothing personal in my refusal. In denying you the loan, I feel compelled to make one frank and honest comment—if you ain't got it, you can't give it—and that, my dear brother, is exactly my situation. I'm sorry, but I just ain't got it."

There's a moral in that simple statement for, regardless of how you look at it, if you don't have it, you just can't give it. And that applies to a lot of things. One cannot successfully sell others without first being sold himself. One cannot set wholesome moral examples without first possessing deep moral convictions. One cannot give correct information or advice unless he has it.

One cannot relay inspiration to others unless the spark first glows within his own heart. One cannot radiate optimism without first being optimistic. Fable With a Moral Once upon a time, there was a parrot who had learned many words and among them was "Sic-im." Every time he saw two dogs or a dog and a cat, he would begin to scream, "Sic-im! Sic-im!" When he got the animals in a fight, he would jump up and down and scream with joy.

One morning the parrot was out of his cage and a dog entered the room. The parrot began to scream "Sic-im!" The dog looked around the room and, seeing only the parrot, he put after him. When the parrot finally escaped, and got back to his cage, he was a sorry sight, with a broken wing and all his tail feathers gone. He shook himself and then said, "I guess I talk too darn much."

insects. When adequate food supplies and favorable weather conditions exist, predators and parasites will increase rapidly. Rapid increases of harmful insects will often severely damage the crop before the beneficial insects can build up and be added in sufficient numbers to control the injurious insects.

Research data and observations by trained entomologists shows that lady beetles disperse rapidly when released in a field and that after a few days the beetles may not be any more numerous in the fields where released than in other surrounding fields.

Other predators such as flower bugs, lace-winged flies, spiders and wasps are much more effective in suppressing many injurious insects, especially bollworms, than are lady beetles.

Beneficial insects are helpful in preventing increases of some pests, but remember the lady beetle is primarily an aphid feeder and one of the least effective for bollworm control. No substitute has been found for making frequent and regular checks for destructive insect infestations and using recommended insecticides when the damaging pests build up faster than beneficial insects can control them. Growers should never rely entirely on beneficial insects to control destructive pests of cotton.

Release of lady beetles is not recommended for bollworm control or any other injurious pest of field crops.

State Capitol NEWS

Texas Press Association.

Austin—First conviction in the $9 indictments shrouding the veterans' land program came last week.

A three-year penitentiary sentence was fixed by a 98th District Court jury for the program's founding father, Bascom Giles.

Surprised, Giles promised to use all his legal rights to fight the conviction. Motion for new trial was quickly overruled, clearing the way for appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Conviction was on a charge the former land commissioner aided and abetted Brady land dealer R. B. Sheffield in the theft of $6,800. Sheffield was jointly indicted with Giles and still awaits trial.

Involved was the state's purchase last fall of the 10,114-acre

Kinney County Rosenow Ranch, subdivided into 54 tracts for resale to 54 veterans. One tract sold for $6,800 to a veteran who testified he thought he was signing up for a $100 loan.

Giles stoutly denied the state charges that he over-appraised the land as part of a scheme to defraud the state. He said he knew nothing of $100-per-acre purchases of veterans' signatures to put through the transaction.

Many a courtroom spectator had predicted an acquittal prior to the closing argument of young District Attorney Les Procter. He waved in the faces of the jury a $25,000 check from Sheffield to Giles and called it "corroboration" of state testimony as to a pay-off. Giles had testified it was in payment for a real estate sale in which he acted as agent.

Free on a $2,000 appeal bond, Giles awaits trial again August 15 in San Antonio. He is charged there with accepting a bribe in another land program deal. Other indictments are still pending in Travis and Zavala Counties.

TURNCOATS AT PRESS CONFERENCE—Three former American GIs, William A. Cowart of Dalton, Georgia, Lewis W. Griggs of Jacksonville, Texas, and Otho G. Bell of Olympia, Washington (left to right) who elected to stay in Red China following the Korean war and after nearly two years following their renouncing of American citizenship, crossed the border between Red China and Hong Kong. They were met by British Red Cross representatives and British officials who told them they were admitted to Hong Kong at "prohibited immigrants."

Action was initiated by the cattle company. It offered to buy back at the purchase price the 700 acres of Dimmit County land sold to 15 veterans. Court judgment was necessary, however, to rescind the transaction.

No allegation of fraud was made by the attorney general's department against the company. It did, however, accuse J. Paul Little, Crystal City attorney who promoted the transaction, with making false representation to the Veterans Land Board.

Way was cleared last week for a new Texas Democratic national committeeman.

In the change, Governor Allan Shivers hopes to regain the vote Texas has lost on the national committee. Wright Morrow has not been nationally recognized since he renounced the Democratic presidential nominee to support Eisenhower three years ago.

To set the stage, the state Democratic committee last week declared the national committeeman post vacant after stirring speeches.

Morrow bitterly assailed Shivers, who for several months had urged the committeeman to resign. Shivers, Morrow charged, wanted to replace him with "someone acceptable to Speaker Sam Rayburn . . . and somebody who supported the Democratic ticket in 1952. He challenged any member of the committee to say he could so qualify.

Shivers denied intention to appease Rayburn. He declared Texas conservative Democrats need full representation on the national committee to help get their delegation seated at the 1956 presidential convention.

A successor to Morrow is to be named at a September meeting. Liberal Democrats quickly tried to wedge the conservative breach.

Ralph W. Yarborough of Austin, twice defeated by Shivers for the governorship, extended his sympathy to Morrow. Even though the two have long disagreed politically, Yarborough said he regretted to see any man "double-crossed."

James Sewell of Corsicana, chairman of the Democratic advisory committee, spoke up for Morrow as a "victim of political connivers."

A state-wide advisory committee on public school integration problems is meeting here this week.

Governor Shivers invited 33 men and women, both white and colored, to serve on the committee. Additional legislative members were named by Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey and Speaker Jim Lindsey.

Shivers said the committee was needed to study critical desegregation problems and prevent "hasty, ill advised action."

He urged school districts to appoint similar committees. They would study local level problems and serve as liaison with the state group.

A non-profit corporation pledged to fight crime on a state-wide basis will set up headquarters in Austin.

Called the Texas Law Enforcement Foundation, it grew out of recommendations of the attorney general's citizen's advisory committee on law enforcement. Its aim is to provide a broad program of education in scientific crime fighting techniques.

It will provide libraries on criminology, make awards to outstanding officers, publish bulletins on new crime combatting tactics, assist training schools, sponsor additional schools.

Texas traffic deaths the first six months of 1955 are up two per cent, and June totals are still incomplete.

"Hot Flashes Stopped" or strikingly relieved

in 63-80% of cases in doctors' tests
• If you're miserable from the "hot flashes," and accompanying irritable, restless feelings, of "change of life"—you may be suffering unnecessarily!

• For . . . in tests by doctors . . . Lydia Pinkham's Compound and Tablets brought relief from such functionally-caused suffering to 63% and 80% (respectively) of the women tested! Complete or striking relief!

Yes! Research has proved these medicines thoroughly modern in action . . . has shown you where to look for relief from those distressing, nervous, "out of sorts" feelings of mid-life "change."
So . . . get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—or new, improved Tablets with added iron! (Wonderful, too, for the functional pains of menstrual periods.)

It acts through a woman's sympathetic nervous system to relieve distress of those awful "heat waves"!

Mrs. Harley Sadler Takes Life After Illness at Austin

Rites for Mrs. Harley Sadler, widow of the late senator from this 24th District, were held at 3:00 p. m. Sunday in the Green Funeral Home in Cameron. A Baptist minister of Rockdale officiated. Burial was in the Oak Hill Cemetery at Cameron.

Mrs. Sadler was found shot to death in her apartment in Austin Friday morning. Her body was discovered a few minutes after she had been drinking coffee with her brother, Seth Burnett Massengale. Justice of the Peace J. H. Watson returned a verdict of death due to self-inflicted gunshot wound.

Massengale told investigators that he and Mrs. Sadler had been drinking coffee when she said she wanted to take a nap and left the room. He heard a shot a few minutes later, he said.

She was stricken with cancer and underwent extensive surgery and treatment soon after her husband's death in 1954.

Mrs. Sadler married Harley Sadler and started a show career as a bride selling tickets and playing the piano for the show with which Sadler was traveling at the time.

The Sadlers were well known to many Hamlin area people, in which area they traveled with shows. Sadler had oil operations in the section during his latter lifetime.

Several Conversions in Revival Held at Bethel

Houston Walker, pastor of the First Baptist Church, conducted revival services at the Bethel Baptist Church in the Funston community. The meeting closed Sunday evening.

Rev. Walker reports a good meeting, with good crowds in attendance and splendid interest. There were several conversions during the meeting.

It's important to know where we stand, but more important to know where we're going.

Fleahopper, Grasshopper and Webworm Damage Reported in Area Cotton Fields

Fleahopper, grasshopper and webworm damage is reported in the Northwest Texas area, of which Jones and Fisher Counties are a part, in the weekly cotton situation report of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, cooperating with the Texas Extension Service.

Excerpt from the weekly report follows:

Showers to heavy rains improved moisture conditions over parts of the state with the exception of the Upper Coastal, Coastal Bend, South Central and North Plains areas.

Bollworms were causing severe damage to scattered untreated bolls in the Lower Valley. Slight increases in populations occurred in scattered growing cotton in the Upper Coastal, South Central, East, Central, North Central, West, Northwest and North and South Plains areas. Boll weevils were damaging cotton badly in some fields of the lower Valley. Considerable increases were found in much of the East, Central,

North Central and Northeast areas, while slight increases were reported from the Southwest, Upper Coastal, South Central, West Cross Timbers and Northwest areas. Spider mites increased in the South Central, Central, North Central and West areas. Aphids increased in some fields of the Lower Valley, Upper Coastal, Central and North and South Plains areas. Increasing fleahopper populations were damaging many fields of cotton in the West Cross Timbers, Northwest and North and South Plains areas.

Heavy populations of migrating weevils were reported infesting fields that are maturing in the South Central, Upper Coastal, Southwest and Lower Valley areas. Weevils will puncture and deposit eggs in green bolls when squares are scarce, causing a decrease in yield and a loss in quality. Green bolls should be protected from the weevils to insure the greatest amount of income possible from this crop.

In the Northwest area the report declares: A few bollworms were reported in most fields of fruiting cotton. Boll weevils increased in some fields, and were in sufficient numbers in a few fields to justify control. Heavy fleahopper populations were present in most untreated fields of cotton. Heavy damage was reported in many fields. Grasshoppers caused some damage to cotton in Kent, Runnels, Stonewall, Jones, Wichita and Motley Counties. Webworms were reported to be migrating to cotton and causing considerable damage in some fields of Runnels, Jones, Wheeler, Fisher, Wichita and Stonewall Counties.

William Duane Brown To Teach in California After Degree at State

William Duane Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brown of Hamlin, has completed requirements for the doctor of philosophy degree in biochemistry at the University of Texas at Austin. The degree will be officially conferred by the university at commencement exercises in August.

Results of the research project undertaken by Dr. Brown for his dissertation, which will be published shortly, were presented by Dr. Roger J. Williams, distinguished professor of chemistry and director of the biochemical institute of the university, at the recent meeting of the National Academy of Science in Washington, D. C. Dr. Brown's research interests have centered around studies of the relationship of human biological variability to the etiology of metabolic diseases. The particular work reported in his dissertation was concerned with metabolic peculiarities in normal young men as quantitatively reflected in organic blood constituents. Certain results of previous related studies of his have been published in scientific journals.

After graduating as valedictorian of the class of Hamlin High School in 1943, Dr. Brown attended Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene for two years. In 1947 he transferred to the University of Texas and in 1949 received the degree of bachelor of science in Chemistry. He received the degree of master of arts in 1951. From 1951 to 1953 he served as an officer in the Medical Service Corps of the U. S. Air Force, and upon release from active duty returned to the university to attain his doctorate. He is a member of the Alpha Chi Sigma, Phi Lambda Upsilon and Sigma Xi fraternities.

Dr. Brown has accepted an appointment as a research scientist with the Department of Food Technology of the University of California. After a visit with his parents, he and Mrs. Brown will take a short vacation in San Francisco, then start his research activities about August 15.

Mental Illnesses Being Neglected, Nail Advises Lions

"Over 50 per cent of all visits to all types of doctors are by people who are ill because of emotional mental illnesses," declared Wesley Nail, business manager of Hamlin Memorial Hospital, when he spoke on "Mental Health" at the Tuesday noon luncheon meeting of Hamlin Lions Club at the oil mill guest house.

Nail noted that America has organized groups to study, treat and educate on tuberculosis, muscular dystrophy, polio, heart and cancer troubles, but little attention has been given to mental health.

"Mental health now is our No. 1 problem," he said, pointing to the fact that 1,000,000 beds are filled with mental patients; while another 5,000,000 are affected by mental illnesses, many of which could be saved with treatment. Fifty per cent of all unfinished discharges from the service are because of mental illness.

Nail urged that more attention be given to research, training personnel and treatment of mental illnesses.

Besides Nail another guest at the Tuesday luncheon was J. H. Millard of Abilene.

Scouters to Attend Training School at Stamford Church

Hamlin Boy Scout and Cub Scouts are expected to attend a district Scout training program next Thursday evening at 7:15 o'clock at the Stamford Presbyterian Church, according to Ray Davis, district executive.

All Cub Scouters and Boy Scouters in Shackelford, Haskell and Jones Counties are invited to attend. Scoutmasters are asked to bring their senior patrol leaders and junior assistant Scoutmasters.

All den mothers and leaders will be issued their fall program booklets and leaders new program notebook. The new annual program charts will be explained, and each unit will be helped as they so desire in planning their year's program. Davis advised. It is important to some 700 boys' experience in Scouting that the 30 units in the Northern District of the Chisholm Trail Council each have representatives at the Scouters' training meeting, the executive points out.

Program planning films will be shown and discussed in relation to each Cub pack and Scout troop. Also the annual round-up program will be initiated.

Retired Workers In County Receive $14,043 Per Month

In Jones County at the end of last year 299 retired workers were receiving $14,043 in monthly social security payments according to R. R. Tuley Jr., district manager of the social security office in Abilene.

In addition to the retired workers themselves, 320 people were receiving $9,550 a month as dependents of the retired workers or as survivors of deceased workers.

Although this is a considerable increase as compared with payments a year ago, it is certain that more people will receive larger payments in years to come because of changes in the social security law in 1954, Tuley says. Among the major changes were the following:

1. Computation of payments after "dropping out" up to five years of lowest social security covered earnings;
2. Extension of social security coverage to more farm workers and to self-employed farmers, as well as many other kinds of work;
3. Increasing of the maximum wages creditable toward benefits from $3,600 to $4,200;
4. Allowing disabled workers to "freeze" their social security wage records while disabled;
5. Increasing the amount of earnings which a retired worker can receive and still get all or a part of his retirement payments. (There is no restriction on earnings after a worker is 72 years old).

Persons with social security questions are invited to contact the Abilene office for information. The address is 766 Cedar Street, and the mailing address is P. O. Box 1641, Abilene, Texas.

One-Step Method of Vegetable Canning Presented by Agent

Jimmie Lou Waincoat, county home demonstration agent, points out that the summer months are times when much canning is done, and many have been asking in the county extension agent's office about our latest methods of canning.

In the one-step cold pack method for canning vegetables recently sent out by the extension foods and nutrition specialists of Texas A. & M. College system, we have the following method for canning beans:

BEAN, SNAP
Wash beans. Trim ends, cut into one-inch pieces. Pack raw beans tightly to one-half inch of top of container. Cover with boiling water, leaving one-half inch space at top of jar. Add one-half teaspoon salt to pint jars, one tablespoon to quart. Adjust jar lids. Process in pressure canner at 10 pounds pressure (240 degrees)—pint jars 20 minutes, and quart jars 25 minutes.

As soon as you remove jars from canner, complete seals if closures are not of self sealing type.

Methods for canning all other vegetables and fruits may be obtained in the county extension agent's office.

Civil Defense Posts Are Established In Fisher County

Fisher County has been organized for civil defense and disaster relief, according to a release from the state headquarters at Austin. J. C. Peters of Roby, Doyle Coker of Rotan, Glenn Webb of Sweetwater, Sterling Willingham of Rotan, Faye Dozier of Sylvester, Charles Scott Jr. of Sylvester, Jerry Crowley of McCauley and J. B. Jayroe of Hamlin were named post supervisors for the Ground Observer Corps posts to be established in their respective locations. The appointments were made by County Judge Bruce McCain of Fisher County.

The Ground Observer Corps is an organization of civilian volunteers who have agreed to give their time and effort to aid the United States Air Defense Force in observing, evaluating and reporting, from their observation posts, movements of aircraft to a central reporting point known as a filter center. These observation posts are located as near to eight miles apart as possible. They are deemed vitally important as a supplement to the network of radar stations which are charged with the responsibility of detecting enemy aircraft invading the United States. Silver GOC wings are awarded to members who serve a required number of hours.

Some people just aren't happy if they haven't a belly-ache.
